1.	Chateau Musar White Aromas of orange peel, peach blossom, lemon and pear. The palate has notes of stone fruits with orange zest overlaid by roasted almonds – it is very fresh despite its weighty texture. Very complex with flowers, lemon, spice and honeycomb underpinned with a fresh acidity and very good length.	2008	£24.45
2.	Musar Jeune Red Musar Jeune Red is an unoaked blend of Cinsault, Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon from youthful Bekaa Valley vines. Inky-dark, silky-textured and aromatic, with blackcurrant, raspberry and cherry flavours and a warm, spicy finish.	2014	£11.25
3.	Hochar Pere et Fils Aromas of dark forest fruits, cassis and black cherries with notes of leather, tobacco and sweet spices. The palate is enriched with blackberry and mulberry fruit, plums and blackcurrant leaf along with layers of sweet spices such as cinnamon and subtle notes of coffee bean. Well balanced and elegant with soft velvety integrated tannins.	2013	£15.45
4.	Chateau Musar Red Released in the spring of 2016, this has a deep scarlet colour and a nose of blackberries, Assam tea, dark chocolate and mulled berries. On the palate there are blackcurrants, cherries, damsons and figs with warm cinnamon spice and a hint of mint. It is also characterised by a smoky earthiness. The tannins are well integrated, there is good acidity and a long, dry finish.	2009	£30.95
5.	Chateau Musar Red a complex, intriguing array of aromas: toasted bread, cigar box, fresh tea, plums and Eastern spices. On the palate, there are mature fruits: plums, figs and cherries with hints of tea leaves and dark chocolate. The wine is intense and gregarious, the first taste releasing complex notes of currants, cherries and spice. The structure is light and airy, blending Musar's classic fruit flavours with a hint of game and finishing with a cleansing acidity.	2003	£28.50
6.	Chateau Musar Red The nose is full of red fruits, mostly cherries and cassis, with flavors of vanilla, oakiness, and some hints of chocolate. This follows through in the taste which is rich, well balanced, mellow with spices in the beginning, very smooth tanins surrounded with mature red fruits, vanilla and chocolate, and a hint of orange in the end. Very long and smooth after taste	1999	£30.95
7.	Chateau Musar Red A beautiful deep, ruby hue with lots of almost confected cherry, blackcurrant and cranberries on the nose with a hint of liquorice. The palate has an explosion of brambly and hedgerow fruits with blueberries and cherries.	2006	£25.95
